ABOUT THE INSTRUCTORS

GRAŻYNA OSTROWSKA (COLOGNE, DE)

YOUR INSTRUCTOR & CONTACT PERSON
FOUNDER OF LIGHTHOUSE COURSES

First of all I am an optimistic and enthusiastic person, and I can't stop me from making new (big and small) plans :)

I am visual artist, painter, illustrator and graphic designer, born 1972 in Warsaw, Poland, moved to Germany 1997. I graduated in Product and Communication Design at The Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw. As a creative director and illustrator I run my own studio ILLUS | ICONS | INFOGRAPHICS in Cologne. As a painter I founded ATELIER GO, creating landscapes, florals and still lifes and most of all - visual memories of the places travelled. LIGHTHOUSE COURSES is my new-born-enterprise with focus on my favourite destination - Portugal.

Speaking: English, German, Polish, bits of French, Italian and Portugese.

MAJID MODIR (VOLTERRA, IT)

YOUR GUEST TEACHER

I am honored to host Majid as course teacher for one day.

He is a visual artist, photographer and graphic designer, born 1961 in Iran, moved to Sweden 1986, and 2016 to Italy.

He graduated in Graphic Design & Illustration (MFA) at The Swedish University College of Arts, Crafts and Design.

As creative director he runs his own design center (Maj Studio) and also teaches motion graphic at The College of Art & Design (Nyckelviksskolan) in Stockholm.

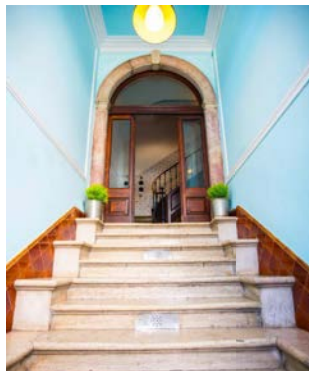

Urban Sketchers instructor and founder of IL PUNTO Watercolor School in Volterra offering painting workshops since 2017.

Multiply awarded, he has been showing his works and watercolors in a number exhibitions in Scandinavia and Italy.
